The Daily Courant.

Saturday, November 21. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 11.

Rome, October 17.

SIgnior Valemanni, Secretary to the Congregation for taking care of the Immunities of the Church, had Audience of the Pope on the 13th, to acquaint him with a Conteſt that has happen'd between Cardinal Cantelmi Archbiſhop of Naples,and the King's Miniſters, on account of the Seizure of one of the principal Conſpirators againſt that State, in a Church; The Miniſters alledging, That being found Guilty of High Treaſon, he is excluded the Benefit of the Eccleſiaſtical Immunity, have paſs'd Sentence of Death on him; but Execution is deferr'd,and 'tis hoped the Matter will be made up. His Holineſs has ſent very urgent Orders to the Nuncio Davia at Vienna, to complain to the Emperor, that without regarding what was ſtipulated in the 4th Article of the Treaty of Reſwyck, his Imperial Majeſty has conſented to the Abolition of the publick Exerciſe of the Catholick Religion in ſeveral Bailiages; in which it was formerly eſtabliſh'd, and by that Treaty maintain'd by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, notwithſtanding the ſtrong Oppoſitions made againſt it by the Proteſtants.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Rome, Oct. 28. Cardinal Nicolo Rodolowich died here on Tueſday laſt, in the 76th Year of his Age; he was a Neapolitan, and promoted to the Dignity of Cardinal by Pope Innocent XII. By his Death there is a 10th Vacancy in the Sacred College: He had the Archbiſhoprick of Chietti,and ſeveral Abbeys and Penſions; part of which, with the Pope's permiſſion, he diſpos'd of among his Friends in his Sickneſs.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Venice, Nov. 4. The Pope has given Directions for the fortifying of Ferrara and Cento, and ſome Troops are poſted to defend the Paſſes into the Eccleſiaſtical State on that ſide.

They write from Rome of the 25th, That Cardinal Grimani had again demanded of the Pope, in the Name of Prince Eugene, Winter-Quarters in the Ferrareze for a certain number of the Imperialiſts; but what anſwer was given him is not yet known.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 16.

Letters from Naples of the 14th of laſt month adviſe, That the Duke d'Eſcalona, had begun again to proceed very rigorouſly againſt thoſe that are impriſon'd for conſpiring againſt the Government, and all other Perſons that are ſuſpected of being inclin'd to the Houſe of Auſtria. That he has caus'd ſome of the Priſoners to be ſecretly put to death; That there were grounds to believe, that he had done the like by ſome entire Families, which have been miſs'd on a ſudden, and never heard of ſince: That he had order'd ſeveral People to be taken out of their Beds in the Night-time: That he has given directions for all the Letters of ſuſpected Perſons to be open'd at the Poſt: That not content with confiſcating the Eſtate of the Marqueſs del Vaſto, he has talk'd of confining the Marchioneſs his Lady to ſome place in the Country remote from Naples.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 21.

Lisbon, Oct. 24. The Marriage of the Prince of Braſil with the Arch-Dutcheſs of Auſtria is agreed on. The Levies of Horſe are continued, and ſeveral Men of War are fitting out againſt next Spring. The Amirante of Caſtile paſs'd through this City yeſterday, to go to Belem, a Seat of the Count de St.Lorenzo, within 3 Miles of this place. There are 9 French Men of War in our River; one of which convoy'd hither a rich Merchant Ship from Vigo that came with the Galleons; and is to ſail for Marſeilles with the firſt fair Wind; the other 8 are to go to Breſt.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Nov. 23.

They write from Lisbon of the 31ſt, That 3 Expreſſes had brought advice thither of the Action at Vigo, Conſtantinople, Sept. 20. On the 12th of laſt Month Oſman the Caimacan of this City was remov'd from that Office,and is ſince made Governour of Damaſcus; Juſuf late Governour of Candia is made Caimacan in his room. The Grand Vizier Amzia Oghi Huſſain, having been indiſpos'd for ſome time, and in no condition to apply himſelf to Affairs of State, reſign'd that Dignity on the 5th inſt. He has preſented his Jewels and fine Horſes to the Grand Signior, and is retir'd to his Country-houſe near Silevrea. The general Opinion is, That Daltaban Muſtapha, Governour of Babylon, (who is a Man of a Warlike Diſpoſition) will be choſen to ſucceed him; in the interim Huſſan, the Grand Signior's Brother-in-Law, has the Direction of the Divan, proviſionally. On the 19th of Auguſt died the Patriarch of Conſtantinople in the 63d Year of his Age, and the Archbiſhop of Calcedon is elected into his place. The Envoy, who came lately from the Court of Perſia, is now at Adrianople, but will return home ſoon after the Arrival of the new Vizier. He has obtain'd leave of the Port for the Perſians to viſit yearly the Tomb of their Prophet Ali at Mecca; which Pilgrimage has been obſtructed for ſome Years.

Conſtantinople, Sept. 21. On the 12th inſtant a Gentleman arriv'd here in 11 days from Vienna, with orders from my Lord Paget, to acquaint the Turkiſh Court,that his Imperial Majeſty will ſhortly ſend an Envoy to the Ottoman Port. The freſheſt Advices from Adrianople ſay, That the Court expreſſes an Inclination to a War, but where it will fall is yet unknown; ſome ſay on the Venetians, others on the Muſcovites, but this is but Conjecture; Mean time Orders are come hither for Artillery to be got ready. About 8 or 10 days ago an Envoy from the Czar of Muſcovy arriv'd at Adrianople, who carry'd it very ſtately, and made high Pretentions; upon which the Court forbad all Correſpondence with him, and put a Guard of Janiſaries upon him,to prevent any body from converſing with him; A Grecian who happen'd to be acquainted with one of his Domeſticks, and exchang'd a few words with him at the Ambaſſador's Gate, was ſent to the Galleys for it. This makes it the rather believ'd that the War will be againſt the Muſcovites. The late Vizier died at Silevrea, and will be buried privately in this City to-morrow. His Succeſſor Daltaban Muſtapha is come Poſt from his Government, and is expected here in two days.

Vienna, Nov. 8. The Difference between the Emperor and the Ottoman Port, relating to the Frontiers of Croatia, is terminated by the Intervention of my Lord Paget, who is about to return to England.

Falmouth, Nov. 16. Yeſterday arriv'd here a Dutch Privateer of 16 Guns belonging to Fluſhing, with a Prize of 250 Tons laden with Fiſh from the Banks of Newfoundland. Her Majeſty's Ship the Exeter has ſent in here a ſmall French Ship of 40 Tons laden with Fiſh likewiſe.

Shields, Nov. 17. The Portland and Winchelſea are arriv'd here with 30 Light Colliers, the latter of them is gone to the Northward to Convoy hither ſome Corn Ships.
